NAFTZGER RULES & REGULATIONS

ELIGIBILITY

1. The competition is open to students who are enrolled in and pursuing a degree at a college, university or conservatory in the United States.
2. The competition is held in four divisions: 1) Voice, 2) Piano, 3) Winds, Brass and Percussion and 4) String Instruments. Voice contestants must be at least 20 years old, but not have reached their 29th birthday as of March 23, 2018. Instrumental and Piano contestants must be at least 18 years old, but not have reached their 27th birthday as of March 23, 2018.
3. Previous Naftzger Young Artists Award winners are not eligible to compete.
4. Contestants must have a valid Social Security Number or appropriate International Tax Identification Number at the time of the competition.

APPLICATION

5. Each contestant shall submit with his/her application an audio or video recording representative of his/her current performance level. Recordings should not exceed 30 minutes in length. The music performed on the recording need not necessarily be the same as submitted in the application for the actual auditions. Recordings will be used in preliminary judging to determine those invited to Wichita for the semifinals and finals on March 23 and 24, 2018.
6. A non-refundable $20 entry fee is required with each application. Payment can be made by credit card through the online application form.
7. Applications must be submitted by February 5, 2018. The application is available online at wichitasymphony.org/education/naftzger-auditions-awards.
8. Applicants will be notified of acceptance on or about February 12, 2018.

SCHEDULE

9. Invited contestants will compete only within their division on Friday, March 23. Two contestants will be selected from each division to perform in the finals. If necessary, Saturday morning, March 24 will be used to complete the selection of finalists. The first round auditions are open to the public at the discretion of the judges.
10. Specific audition times in the first round cannot be guaranteed; however, every effort will be made to accommodate requests.
11. Finals will be Saturday, March 24, 7:30 p.m. in Wiedemann Hall on the Wichita State University campus. Presentation of awards shall follow immediately. One person will be named the Naftzger Young Artist Award winner and win $5,000. Three other division prizes will be awarded at $2,000 each, and four division runner-up awards at $500 each.

OTHER

12. Each contestant invited to Wichita shall appear at his/her own expense and furnish his/her own accompanist. All selections must be performed from memory when it is customary to do so. Please bring one copy of your music for the adjudicators.
13. The selection of any and all winners and subsequent presentation of prizes is at the sole discretion of the judges. Their decisions shall be final.
14. The Wichita Symphony Society reserves the right to make binding decisions regarding contestant eligibility and conformity to regulations or their intent to any situation not specifically covered by the above.
