WICHITA SYMPHONY YOUTH ORCHESTRAS LAUNCH SEARCH FOR NEW CONDUCTOR

(Wichita, KS) The Wichita Symphony Youth Orchestras, Kansas's premier program of youth orchestral music, is excited to announce the launch of a search for a new conductor for its highest-level ensemble, the prestigious Youth Symphony. This search marks a new chapter in our ongoing mission to bring classical music to life and provide outstanding orchestral experiences for young people in South Central Kansas.

The Wichita Symphony Youth Orchestras (WSYO) represent the finest student musicians in South Central Kansas. Founded in 1947 as an educational project of the Wichita Symphony Orchestras, the Youth Orchestras program provides a unique opportunity for talented school-age musicians to further their musical education through participation in one of six ensembles. Our conductors have historically played a crucial role in shaping the artistic vision of the youth orchestras and fostering the growth of countless young musicians who have gone on to achieve success in their musical careers.

Qualifications:

- Proven experience conducting youth orchestras and/or working with students in an orchestral setting.
- Strong leadership and communication skills.
- Ability to inspire and motivate young musicians.
- Commitment to music education and community engagement.
- A vision for innovative and inclusive programming.

Application Process:

Interested candidates are invited to submit a resume, cover letter, and three professional references via an online form here. Applications will be accepted until Wednesday, September 4. Selected candidates will be contacted for interviews and auditions.
